BOTH SIDES PLAN TO CONTEST ELECTION IN THE CLOSE STATES

NORTH DAKOTA-Seventeen hundred and eighteen precincts out of 1.859 in North Dakota, give Wilson, 53,092; Hughes, 51. 672. Wilson's plurality, 1,420.

WEST VIRGINIA-Returns from 1,389 out of 1,713 precincts in West Virginia give Hughes 118,763, Wilson 116,149, a majority for Hughes of 2,614. This shows a pronounced decrease in the Hughes majority, which was 4,170 in 1,334 pre-

Should the election be very close depending, say, on one electoral vote, a complication which has arisen in West Virginia may have a bearing on the result.

This developed to-day when it became known that officials in a number of counties had neglected to place the name of S. A. Scott on the ticket as candidate for elector. Scott was named by the Republican States Committee when J. W. Dawson, who had been nominated by the State Republican Convention, resigned from the ticket. The complication may result in West Vaginia having only seven instead of eight electoral votes.

United States Secret Service operatives have been sent to Minnesota to have won the three-cornered fight to keep watch over the situation. United States Marshals are guarding in the Twentieth District, in which L. the polls in States where the result is close and a recount may be demanded.

Chairman McCormick of the Democratic forces said

"I stick to the figures I gave out two days ago. I am still claiming not only the re-election of President Wilson, but an electoral vote of 288. All the messages I have received this morning tend to confirm my belief that we are going to clean them up. I have myself telephoned to the State House at Concord, New Hampshire, and received from the officials in charge the definite statement that President Wilson carries that State

"I don't think a recount will be necessary. I cannot imagine the Republicans forcing us to a recount in that State. They probably know what would happen in the event of a recount.

"Minnesota is still doubtful, with our chances as good today as they were yesterday. We are claiming California now, and our latest reports show the President is gaining there."

Asserting that North Dakota was a surely Republican State and out of the doubtful column, Mr. Perkins declared that the twenty electoral votes of Minnesota, New Mexico and North Dakota, added to the 247 sure votes credited to Hughes by the committee at midnight, warranted the committee F.
